

I urge the Commission to retain current Part 15 regulations for all current test BPL installations. The potential for disruption of vital HF communications by unwanted emissions from BPL installations staggers the imagination. All test installations must be scrupulously monitored by qualified, independent testing entities and, ALL reports of interference by and to BPL installations must be reported and commented on before any approval of permanent installations is even considered.